Continued from First Page.

Hall, 33 East Sixty-first street. They are $3 each.

The dance will be at Sherry's on a late November day.

The music will be Conrad's, oh, how wonderfully they play.

Come, mothers, bring your daughters, you'll regret not being there.

For no party of the winter with our party will compare!

There you'll have an opportunity to learn the latest dance.

For fair ladies of all ages as well as debutantes.

Will demonstrate with grace and ease the Portuguese lu' fado.

A polka, fox trot or why not, that odd thing called ta-tao.

So one and all, come join the ball and dance the whole night long.

For what party is successful that stops before the dawn?

We send this invitation and add this little rhyme.

Showing we've planned the evening to give you a very good time!
